Timber holders' petition denied

Formal petitions from International Paper Co. and L. O. Crosby properties for downward revisions in acreage assessments were denied on a 3-0 vote by the board of supervisors Monday at its hearing on equalization of the land rolls.

Motions to deny were by H. G. Dean of Beat 1, seconded by L. M. Frierson of Beat 2, Dean and R. G. Hubbard, Jr., board president and Beat 5 member, indicated however that a

Pick bug body, hold 3 dockets

A three-member mosquito control commission was appointed Monday by the board of supervisors to work in conjunction with neighboring county, state and federal agencies toward obliteration of the pest in these parts. Named were Al Landers of Pearl River, Leon Davis of Beat 2 and Leo Seal, Jr., of Bay St. Louis. Motion was by H. G. Dean, Beat 1 supervisor, seconded by L. M. Frierson of Beat 2.

The resolution creating such a commission was adopted early in July at the request of B. U. Jones, community relations chief for Mississippi Test Operations, and representatives of the Department of Agriculture.

Only three of the five-member body were present for the opening August meeting on the eve of the Democratic primary and all but three July claims dockets were approved for payment. Held for payment because of lack of sufficient funds on the motion of Frierson were those of the general county, and Beats 3 and 4 road and bridge maintenance funds.

A check of Beat 3 claims showed $4,368.20 in bills against $2,439.76 in the bank while Beat 4 was $733.13 in the red to start.

County goes for Johnson as governor

Le. Gov. Paul B. Johnson carried three of Hancock County's five beats, running especially strong in the rural areas, to lead gubernatorial voting here with a 2,345 ballot total in the Democratic primary.

Charles Sullivan ran second with 1,735, carrying the big Beat 5 while J. P. Coleman, bidding for a second term in the state mansion, was third at 1,522. He carried only Beat 1. Robert McCan got 37 votes. Johnson's big showing was in Beats 2, 3 and 4 and he ran a close second in 5.

Former Le. Gov. Carroll Garlin ran away in his bid for another term in that post, tallying 2,898, on the basis of unofficial returns compiled by the Echo, to 946 for Evelyn Gandy, his nearest competitor.

District Attorney Boyce Holleman had little trouble here with his foe, Richard Verbrugg, winning 3,739 to 1,379.

In other state-wide races, Hancock voted for Secretary of State Heber Laddner, 4,212 over W. L. McClure of 1,050; supported Joe Patterson for another term as attorney general, 3,265 to 1,844 for John McLaughlin, and liked William Winb-

Mitch, Marie in 2nd; Sylvan to face Bully

A. C. Mitchell and Marie Mitchell, headed into the run-off primary Aug. 27 in a tight race for chancery clerk. Mitchell, a former clerk of courts, had a 1,154 vote plurality in Tuesday's primary.

On the basis of unofficial returns compiled by the Sea Coast Echo, former sheriff Sylvan J. Laddner, Jr., led the ticket by a wide margin in the race for sheriff and tax collector and H. (Bully) Zengarling in his liberty opponent in that second primary. Paul Carver was about 30 votes behind in third place.

The county Democratic executive committee is to meet this morning for an official canvass of returns. An estimated 30 absentee ballots from servicemen are still outstanding.

Mayor John A. Scalfie of Bay St. Louis piled up solid support in Beat 5 in the third state senatorial district contest and appears headed into the second primary against James Rester, Leavenworth farmer who got a good vote out of Pearl River County as well as running second in Hancock. Complete unofficial returns show Rester with 2,795 votes to 2,762 for Scalfie, R. J. Williams of Piquette with 1,455 was third in the eight man field.

Elected by sweeping majorities in the first primary were Circuit Clerk Lerner Otis and Coroner and Ranger Emile Piazza. Otis amassed the heaviest vote of any candidate in the bumper field—3,715. Piazza got 3,154.

Run-offs are in store for the other two county-wide races. Rep. Clarence M. Laddner faces former legislator Walter J. Phillips for the Hancock seat in the state house. For county superintendent of education, R. G. McCarty, the incumbent, goes against Robert Frank Laddner. In both instances, the run-off is between the same two candidates as four years ago.

With the county's six biggest precincts split this time to ease counting, returns were complete 13 hours after the polls closed. First hour to report was Beat 1's Gainesville which probably will hold this year to make way for NASA's Mississippi Test Operations, it finished up at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. The last was Crane Creek in Beat 3 which turned in its figures about 7 a.m. Wednesday. Four years ago it took Waveland until 12:01 a.m. Thursday to finish the job.

Indications are that balloting was orderly throughout the county—starting off slowly in the morning and picking up momentum at lunch time. Only trouble was at South Bay precinct in the old Webb School where a power failure put the election managers in darkness for a brief spell Tuesday night.

In 2: Kellar by 2

Hubbard foe Elliott in runoff

Dolph Kellar of Santa Rosa appeared the winner by two votes over incumbent L. M. Frierson in the Beat 2 board of supervisors primary balloting Tuesday while R. G. Hubbard of Waveland, seeking a fourth term on the board, moved into a run-off in the second primary with Russell J. Elliott in Beat 5.

It appears certain a recount will be sought on the Beat 2 supervisors election when the county Democratic committee convenes this morning and there's a chance one also will be asked in the Beat 2 Justice of the peace contest where William E. Mitchell topped veteran incumbent C. W. Brunson.

Hubbard tained 1,271 votes to Elliott's 1,208 on the basis of unofficial returns. The other three candidates in the supervisor's race trailed far behind. Run-offs also are in store for the other Beat 5 races. For justice of peace Post 1, it's Peter Chinihe vs. incumbent Nellius Rhodes while in Post 2, former JP Nolan Laddner with a handsome 1,406 tally faces Edward A. Fayard at 593. Constable Arthur (Pat) Garcia got 1,147 votes and John Kachler tallied 405 to lead the eight-man race for the constable's post.

In Beat 3's supervisory race, which had nine candidates on the ballot, incumbent Charles Levinghouse led the field with 202 ballots to 151 for P. S. Shaw, his nearest challenger and apparent run-off opponent. R. J. Laddner captured the JP post over E. L. Schambach while Leslie Dedeaux is in a run-off with Donald Cuevas for constable.

James Necaise, the incumbent, meets former supervisor Jack Lot in the second primary for the Beat 4 seat on the county governing body and Beat races on Pages 4, 5.

John R. Garriga and Kire Mitchell square away for constable in that district. JP Frank Selph defeated Harold Cospelich for another term in that office.

Incumbent Lester Hoyer polled a majority in the three-man JP race in Beat 1 to win that contest and Noah Bliss beat Russell Dawsey for constable. Bliss had been serving the unexpired term of H. G. Dean, now supervisor who was nominated without opposition.

I thought the gang in Kila had participated in every sport around. But I was wrong. There is one which to my knowledge had never been tried until Earl (Buck) Ladner somehow or another got wind of scuba diving. He purchased his equipment some time ago and is now an explorer of the "strange and beautiful world below." He reports seeing all sorts of objects 25 to 30 feet down in Jordan River. He told of seeing a dark object in the distance, and as he approached he thought it was a pineapple chest. But it turned out to be just an old rusty piece of iron. Ladner and his wife and son are now planning a scuba diving trip to the Gulf of Mexico (Buck Ladner, Editor).

Assessments again

Monday the Board of Supervisors heard from four county property owners complaining of the board's action in raising the per acre assessment on uncultivated property. All four, two of whom had filed written objection, had three things in common: they owned lots of property, they thought their assessment was too high and by inference they agreed their property was worth many times the amount of the assessment.

Because of the restrictive easement Uncle Sam owns or will own soon there seems some merit to us in International Paper Company's contention that land in the butter zone should be assessed lower than uncultivated land outside, any fair difference would be slight. On the other hand among all the babbles from the complainers, including cries of unconstitutional, we heard nothing addressed to the only pertinent question: in comparison to other property in the county generally is the assessment too high.

Of course there was a real good reason for this avoidance of the real and only question. The complainers' property is assessed at less than 5 per cent of its worth whereas improved property is assessed in the neighborhood of 20 per cent of its value. We suggest the board remember this and next year bring the assessment a little more in line. Doubling acreage assessments would be a good start.

See HNC addition ready 30 days after term starts

The four classroom addition to Hancock North Central School's elementary section is moving along well but Principal J. D. Penton said this week he did not expect the new quarters would be ready for occupancy until about 30 days after the fall session starts.

Bond Construction Co. of Poyune is contractor for the project. Start of work, bid out in the spring, was delayed to secure change orders to bring price into line with the county school board's finances. Equipment for the classrooms is yet to be secured but Penton said he is confident the board will arrange to have the necessary desks, etc., ready for installation as soon as the building itself is ready.

The North Central school head also reported he is still on the market for three teachers—first grade, librarian and English—to fill vacancies.

Traps, Reimke fall

Realty romps in play-off for 1st

Battle-weary South Realty held on to their Bay Softball game crown for another Friday night, breezing past the Knocks-Knocks 17-4 and Reimke's Dirt Dabbers 10-3 in a pair of sudden-death playoffs after regular play had ended in a three-way first-place deadlock.

Realty, warnerment winner week-after-week along the coast this summer, proved once again their superiority, backing Claude Yarbrough's pitching arm with a dazzling display of hitting and fielding.

Individual stars were many. Shortstop W. J. Cameron swatted eight hits in the long doubleheader; third-baseman James Ginn continually sent Traps and Reimke power boys back to their bench grumbling with sure grabs of hot smashes, often before the batters let loose their timber; and pitcher Yarbrough, bidding for another pitching award (he won with Traps in 1961), hurled both games and styled the opposition with his baffling motion and what the players call a "knuckle ball".

Realty, strongest aggregation of ballplayers assembled together since the reorganization of the Bay League five summers ago, was guilty of only four errors in the 14 innings played. The Traps made five mistakes in the first game, then the Dabbers committed four in the finale. A coin toss following Wednesday night's climatic end of regular season competition determined pairings for Friday's extra tournament.

Against punchless Traps, Realty pounded out 23 hits and could have scored even more save for some poor baserunning, lone shortcoming displayed. The cakewalk was begun early when Realty grabbed a quick 6-0 lead in the first three innings, and an extra bit of frosting was added in the seventh and final frame when eight runners crossed the plate.

Cameron, alternating line drives down the left and right-field foul lines, totaled five hits in a like number of appearances to pace the winners at the plate, but drew plenty of support. Barry Stephens, late-season team addition, had a perfect 4-4 evening. Charley Tartavalle added 4-5, and Bill Watts 3-4. The Traps' eight hits were scattered about, Donald Strong leading with 2-3.

Yarbrough was the winning moundman and Gene Rogers the loser.

After a brief rest, Realty then receded for an invective by Reimke, the league's hottest team, unbeaten since July 1, fresh and ready for the kill. The Dabbers, however, never had a chance after being hit with a run in the first, three in the second, and four in the third innings. Reimke made one threat during the middle innings, scoring a pair of runners and boarding two more on the sacks before being abruptly halted when third-baseman Ginn speared a sharp grounder and started an around-the-horn twin-killing.

J. T. Ledner joined a band of other players who've cleared the right-centerfield fence in home-run territory with a long blast, combined with Cameron and Ronnie Artiges to lead Realty batting forces with three hits in four attempts. Charley Carter was 2-4, and Buddy Pitalo, Billy Rhodes, and Vernon Bernward all 2-3 in a losing cause.

Yarbrough allowed but nine hits in going the route once again for the pitching victory. Reimke starter Billy Osborn, hero of last Monday's triumph over CVO assuring the Dabbers of a first-place tie, absorbed the defeat and needed relief from Charley Carter in the third inning.

Reimke, Traps and Industrial Enameling, winners by a nose over CVO in their race for fourth place, will get another crack at Realty when playoffs begin either Friday or Monday at 8 p.m. The Traps and Dabbers will play in one semi-final series while Realty and Industrial meet in the other. Survivors then will collide in the best-three-out-of-five championship playoff series.

Electric stuns Express

Coast Electric again won a tight game with five runs in the fourth inning and upset Gulf Coast Express 7-5 Friday in Little League action. Earlier this season, second-place Express had shellacked the Electric-Kids 12-1. The Junior Sheriffs won Friday's other contest 5-0 over Merchants Bank when the latter couldn't field a team.

Coast Electric collected six hits in its win. Dave Rinehart clouted a homer, John Dougher singled twice, and John Heath, Davy Compton and P. Gysant all had one-base blows for the winners. T. Lafontaine homered in a losing cause and also singled. Mike Benigno had two singles and Stewart Shayot one for Express.

Dougher was the winning pitcher going the distance, while T. Lafontaine took the defeat. Benigno relieved Lafontaine in the third inning.

League leading 7-Up tripped Merchants Bank 9-1 Wednesday behind the home-run hitting of Claude Yarbrough and Perry Stephens. Yarbrough a 1-0 singled in the fifth. Williams for the winners, 3 and 2-1. Tomorrow's doubleheader will begin at 4:30 p.m. with the Junior Sheriffs vs. Industrial Enameling and Gulf Coast Express vs. Merchants. Monday, it'll be Industrial vs. Merchants and Cue Oil vs. 7-Up. Wednesday's single contest pits Coast Electric vs. the Sheriffs.

Mollere, Moran to play for title

state event

Mississippi State Girls Softball Tournament. Mollere and Moran, both of the Gulf and Jerome, respectively, as the regular league season came to an end.

Moran led all the way over Jerome in Sunday's opener, but never could pull away in posting a 14-9 decision. The winners started with five runs in the first and led 12-9 entering the final inning. Moran scored two in their sixth, though, and stayed off a Jerome rally.

Diane Schneider paced Moran at the plate with four hits in as many batters including one home run. Dot Palazzolo was 3-3 and Annie Ruth Dahl went 3-4 with a four-bagger. Patsy Carver and Jo Ann Colson were each 2-4 in a losing cause. Bertie Faye Neidise was the winning moundman and Jo Ann Colson took the defeat.

Dale Sellier's two-hit pitching and a power batting attack were more than enough to push Mollere past OLG 17-1 in the evening's nightcap.

Marie Pierce was 3-4. Jeanne Kimball closed a home run and was 2-4, and pitcher Sellier had 2-3, all for Mollere Realty. Dana Sellier singled and scored the lone OLG run and Barbara Neenan collected the only other safe blow. Marge Leifant was the losing hurler.

All four league teams will take part in post-season playoffs beginning Sunday night. The league champion, winner of tonight's contest, will play fourth-place OLG and the loser tonight will meet third-place Jerome in a best two-out-of-three series. Winners then will play three-out-of-five for the title.

Bay Chamberlain and Bill Watts took home top honors Sunday night as trophies were presented at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club officially bringing to a close the regular summer season. A large hootenanny in connection with the awards presentations was attended by over 200 persons.

Miss Chamberlain finished second in the concluding pair of Bay Bourbon races for skipperettes to wrap up the four-race over-all title. Judy Reeves was second and Mrs. W. L. McFarland third in final standings.

Bill Watts wound up first in the Lipson elimination standings based on points compiled by extra
